

Tour of the two Landscapes of the Eternal City

The social program of the September 14th offers to all participants the possibility to visit two different locations from which it is possible to admire Rome (having as nick name Eternal City) by two landscapes that are considered two of the most famous landscapes in the world. The locations are Janiculum Hill and Pincian Hill (Pincio's Terrace).

At the end of the last Poster Session (4.30 pm) the participants will be transferred by private Buses first to the Janiculum Hill (45 minutes of stop) and then to the Pincian Hill, where also the social dinner will be held into the historical Casina Valadier Restaurant.

Together with the Vatican Hill (Latin Collis Vaticanus) lying northwest of the Tiber, the Pincian Hill (Latin Mons Pincius), lying to the north, and the Janiculum Hill (Latin Ianiculum), lying to the west, are not counted among the traditional Seven Hills: Aventine Hill (Latin, Aventinus; Italian, Aventino), Caelian Hill (Cælius, Celio), Capitoline Hill (Capitolinus, Campidoglio), Esquiline Hill (Esquilinus, Esquilino), Palatine Hill (Palatinus, Palatino), Quirinal Hill (Quirinalis, Quirinale), Viminal Hill (Viminalis, Viminale).

More in details, the Janiculum Hill is located on the right side of Tiber River (that was the ancient Etruscan side) whereas Pincian Hill is located on the left Tiber side (in which the Ancient Roma was born in 753 BC and where there are the famous seven hills).

From Janiculum Hill, in addition to admire the Landscape, it will be possible to see important sites like the “tempietto del Bramante” in Saint Peter in Montorio (the historical place in which Saint Peter was crucified); the Fontana dell'Acqua Paola (also known as "Il Fontanone", i.e. "The big fountain"); an open-air Glyptothèque collecting the marble busts of the Roman Republic Patriot Heroes (19th century) and behind the Garibaldi's Monument, the magnificent Saint-Peter-Basilica's Cupola.

From Pincio's Terrace, in the surrounding, in addition to the seeing of the Landscape from the Terrace, it will be possible to admire the Church “Trinità de' Monti”, no more than 2 minutes walking from the Social dinner site, at the top of the famous “Piazza di Spagna” (135-steps staircase).

Moreover, during the Bus trip we will enjoy the sightseeing of famous sites such as: Campus Martius and Pompey's Theatre (Largo di Torre Argentina), Altare della Patria (Piazza Venezia), Bernini's Fontana del Tritone...
